

A Telegram from the Government of India to the Foreign Office of Tibet

July 1947

The first communication of the Government of independent India to the Foreign Office of the Tibetan Government in Lhasa was to request the latter to ratify the Simla Convention. By itself this formal request from the Government of India to the Foreign Office of Tibet proves Tibet's independent status in 1947.